Hypersay Events offers the full range of functionalities to host and run events of up to 10,000 people, where no one feels alone. Our unique 'Front Row' feature allows attendees to watch and comment on the sessions with like-minded people, by creating or joining a group and making emotional connections. With 10 years of expertise in enhancing interactions and communication in the digital world, the team behind Hypersay Events have built an entirely new platform for hosting online events.
